The Value of an Akashic Record Reading

Information that has great value for your life path

'What is blocking you from making your dreams come true ?'

- Perhaps you have been unknowingly in the habit of making the same choices.
- Or do you feel stuck ?
- You may be wanting to make a change, but it can seem like there is something invisible holding you back.
- What if there is something invisibly blocking you from making new choices?

The Akashic Record contains all of the Thoughts, Feelings, and Actions that you put out into the universe in past and present lives. By looking at who you are from an energetic point of view I can find out what maybe energetically blocking you from achieving your goals.

Benefits

- Causes Dig into the root causes of recurring issues in your life. Things happen for a reason, some may be from past lives, some in present life. We'll dig into the limiting patterns and beliefs that have gone in to these energetic situations that are causing you to feel unworthy and unsatisfied and clear them at an Akashic Record level.
- Clarity Finally get those ah-ha moments to situations that keep showing up in your life. Have the clarity you need to be able to make a decision to move forward in a relationship or a career change.
- Confirmation Get confirmation on your soul level talents and strengths. By having an inner knowing of your soul level gifts, you can make powerful decisions and choices aligned with who you truly are instead of your perceived self.
- Choices Understand you have more choices available than you think you do with a given situation or circumstance. We'll explore those choices together and validate which ones are connected to truth and purpose.
- Commitment True change comes from making a real decision and commitment to want change. When you understand what's energetically going on and who you are at soul level, you can become clear and firm in your decisions and commitments to take new actions and finally get what you want.
